Reconnaissance will be the 36th annual New Zealand National Science Fiction Convention. These conventions have been held almost annually since the mid-1970's at various locations throughout New Zealand.

Pack your riding gloves and a warm scarf for the views on the promenade deck of the R-101 because we're off to the Sudima Hotel at Rotorua for Easter weekend, 3rd - 6th April 2015.

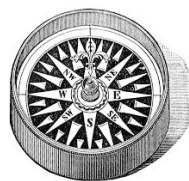

RMS Titanic II at the docks

Our Guests of Honour, Gail Carriger, Pip Ballantyne and Tee Morris will be journeying from distant lands on the soon to be built RMS Titanic II to join us, recounting tales of lands imagined full of steam powered vessels, werewolves, vampires and the fey... (*)

We will be in attendance at Conclave II over the ANZAC Day long weekend to accept registrations.
